INTER COLLEGE SPORTS MEET

Guru Gobind Singh University conducted its mega annual inter-college sports event –at the university Sports Complex, New Delhi with its famous punch of excitement and grandeur!

After intense competitions the grand 'Valedictory' function for was held on Friday, 15th March to felicitate students for their exemplary performance and zealous participation at the games.

The auditorium was packed like sardines, with winners and participants from various colleges a waiting for their moment of glory receiving their trophies and medals.

It was also reiterated in the valedictory ceremony about showing encouragement and taking every failure as a stepping stone to victory. This won thumping applause from the packed auditorium. It further emphasised to the students to take sports seriously as it was sincerely being recognized as an important aspect of attaining success and a wonderful personality!

This was followed by the result declaration for which event coordinators were invited on stage to announce winners in their respective categories.

A very special award was initiated this year to galvanize students into adopting sports earnestly, namely, "The Sportsman of the Year" for both boys and girls separately.

This coveted award carried the prestige of being given to a student who was exceptionally active in all quarters of events and activities throughout the year and worked towards team building and motivation. The valedictory function came to a close with the customary 'Vote of Thanks'.
