TEACHERS DAY-2014

“A good teacher is like a candle it consumes itself to light the way for others”.

Every year, 5th of September, birthday of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, former President of India and an eminent scholar, is celebrated in India as "Teacher's Day". The celebrations for the same were organized by the students of Delhi Institute of Advanced Studies to honour and pay a token of respect to their teachers as the teachers are believed to be the architect of the society and without them no society can walk in the path of progression.

The event commenced with words of wisdom from Dr. S.N. Maheshwari, Professor Emeritus and Academic Director, DIAS followed by moving words from Dr. N. Malati, Director, DIAS. Followed by warm moving words from Dr. N Malati , Director. Later, a short play was presented by the students depicting the vital role of teachers in a student's life. It really touched the hearts of audience. Singing and dancing performances followed the play. Montague for teachers and the title distribution were the highlights of the event. In all, the day was much enjoyed by the DIASians. Post this, the faculty members came forward in unison to cut the cake. The program was well organized by the students and enjoyed by the teachers of DIAS.
