ORIENTATION DAY .FRESHER'S DAY (MEET & GREET) 2015

With the commencement of each new session comes a wave of fresh energy. Therefore, to channelise this energy and make the most of it, it is important for the new students to have an orientation so as to get an idea about the institute and the life on campus. Orientation is one of the ways to make new entrants acquainted with the college environment, faculty and seniors in addition to the overall procedure which the college follows. Not only do they get an idea about the college but they also get to know what is expected from them and encourage them to pursue it with passion and determination because nothing is impossible. With this vision, DIAS celebrated orientation day to welcome students of both MBA and MCA with open arms in DIAS family.

The pedagogy at DIAS is designed in a way to groom each and every individual to be a corporate ready professional. DIAS aims at developing those skills' set which would be necessary for individuals to achieve their dreams and meet their expectations. DIAS contains many committees which aim to give a variety of options and opportunities to tap their talent. Quality is of utmost importance, wherein providing modern, well maintained facilities are the foundation of higher education which freshers will experience at DIAS.

Dr. S.N. Maheshwari, Professor Emeritus and Academic Advisor, DIAS welcomed students to DIAS fraternity and wished them a great year ahead. On this occasion, he shared his valuable experience as a student and also a teacher where he held various key positions in top notch colleges. He encouraged the students to follow “think big, think fast and think new”, mantra into their lives, and take their dreams seriously. He emphasized on the importance of hard work to achieve milestones in life. He further urged the fresher’s to ensure that they maintain good discipline during their time at the institute in order to finish their programs smoothly.

Dr. N. Malati, Director, addressed the new students giving an insight into life at DIAS. She also gave a detailed description of curricular and examination pattern. It is necessary for students to achieve excellence in academics. DIAS has always been the flag bearer when it comes to academics and co-curricular activities. It becomes the responsibility of the new entrants to continue this tradition of excellence and thrive to achieve even bigger goals and milestones.
