AUDITIONS- NAVYATA FASHION SOCIETY

Art is defined varyingly. Art is all about subjectivity and your ability to unravel exclusivity in monotony. Oscar Wilde captured it in his famous quote: "Life imitates art, or art imitates life." To draw attention of students, a dynamic form of artistic representation and fervor of art in the form of Fashion society was introduced in the institute.

Freshers were intimidated by a fashion society, and they were wrongly led to believe that the fashion society will only pick people who fit in a certain body type or height requirement. However, the student coordinators advice to them to not give in to these myths. Freshers were told that anyone with a passion for fashion and creativity would be welcome in to be a part of the society, despite the way they look. We're all about cultivating fierce girls and boys who feel comfortable in their own skin. Pro tip for auditions: Confidence is the key!
